

March 29, 2000

The Mahaska County Board of Supervisors met on the above date with all members present in the third floor conference room of the courthouse at 7:00 p.m.. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Gordy with a moment of silence.

It was moved by Cox seconded by Groenendyk to approve the agenda. All ayes. Motion carried.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss with the public about the needs for Vocational Services for persons with disabilities in Mahaska County. There was approximately 120 persons in attendance, many of whom were clients and parents as well as staff members from Diamond Shelter and Christian Opportunity Center. There was much discussion about the Vocational Services proposal, or to continue with the services as they presently are.

This will be on the April 3rd agenda for the board to make a decision to keep the services at Christian Opportunity Center or to change to Diamond Shelter.

Meeting adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Chairman, Board of Supervisors
